Good Communication skills for a Workplace setting

1. They are necessary for the workplace: Employers are more likely to hire people with good communication skills, as those are vital for work interactions. You may have to speak with clients about their projects or collaborate with your colleagues on on-going projects. Both involve exchanging information and participating in discussions and

STUDENTS' TESTIMONIALS

Being at TSAP was a wonderful experience. My journey for the past 3 years has been nothing but full of new experiences and tremendous new opportunities. The faculty here is very supportive and is always inspiring to develop new skills in students. They are always motivating students to think out of the box and believe in making future leaders. TSAP has provided me a great platform to explore my skills in this course duration. It has not only helped me to excel in my field, but it has taught me to work efficiently for it, as well. They have amazing infrastructure and facilities within the college which make student's life easier and more comfortable.

Third Year (B.Voc.-ID)

It is my great pleasure and good fortune to be a member of the Thakur School of Architecture and Planning, where I am growing. The whole faculty and department works tirelessly to mould one's destiny. My three years at this institution has been a fantastic bag of learning experiences and experimentation of new things.

I have a great deal of respect and devotion for the whole faculty and department.
