

SITE 1 : BAL GANDHARV AUDITORIUM , PUNE

Bal Gandharva Ranga Mandir is a theatre auditorium and exhibition hall located in Pune, India. The theatre was built in 1962 and is named after Marathi singer and stage actor Bal Gandharva. Bal Gandharva Ranga Mandir is a theatre with an auditorium and an

Students understanding the site planning.

- Seating Capacity: 989 persons
- The auditorium has air-conditioning system installed.
- Canteen and Cafeteria facility is available.
- The Art Gallery is available for exhibition of handicrafts, paintings and works of upcoming artists.
- V.I.P. Rooms are available for special guests.

Overview of the auditorium

SITE 2 : OKAYAMA FRIENDSHIP GARDEN PUNE :

This garden is inspired by one of the three greatest gardens of Japan called Okayama's Koraku-en Garden which was built in 1,700 and is 300-years-old.

The garden is also known as Pu La Deshpande and is been named after a very well known Marathi writer.

Scenic view from topmost point of the garden

The garden is spread across 10 acres and has a natural water flow from the canal. The canal also has colourful fishes that can be seen as you stroll across the small bridge in the centre of the garden.

One of the most unique features of this garden is its impeccable beauty. As you take a walk through the garden paths, you'll realise that the landscape keeps changing and keep mesmerizing you further.

Japanese Landscape element: Water and Stones

SITE 3 : FLAMES UNIVERSITY , PUNE

University Entrance

The 60-acre campus of FLAME University is in Pune, Maharashtra. The campus has been designed by Vastu Shilpa Consultants, an architectural practice founded by 2018 Pritzker Laureate B.V. Doshi.

Informal Gathering Spaces for Students

FLAME University is a private university, with 31 institutional and administrative buildings, including a sports complex, amphitheater. The campus is vibrant with four cafes and three water bodies. It is spread on 53 acres of green expanse.

Interactive Seating in front of Library

Overview Of Library Building