

A session on Electrical Power Distribution system was conducted by TATA Power Company Limited personnel for the students of Third Year B. Arch.

Arch. students in the subject of Architectural Building Services. The objective of the session was to make students understand Electrical Supply and Distribution system from Generation to the electric appliances in the building. The session comprised a lecture and visit to adjacent substations of TSAP campus with personnel from TATA Power Company Limited namely.

Program Title: Electrical Power Distribution

Expertise: TATA Power Company Limited

Date: 27th June 2019

Contents Of The Program

1. Lecture with a Power Point Presentation

The personnel explained the Electrical Generation, Transmission and Distribution system with the help of Power Point presentation. They explained the importance of electrical services in design considerations, integration with other services in Architectural Design process.

2. Site Visit to Sub Station

The site visit was conducted to adjacent sub stations to show the various electrical equipments and installations for electrical distribution.

Lecture in class Room

Visit To Sub Station

Visit to Sub station

Thanks Giving